About Us

Our Parent Organization

The organization of the Seventh-day Adventists (SDA) comes with rich, world-wide experience in the field of education since the 1870s, establishing educational and medical institutions, globally. The organization's objective in propagating education has its foundation in the philosophy that the youth of the world possess individuality and should be educated to use their abilities and skills to become individuals of principle, qualified for any position of life. As such, it believes in the development of the physical, intellectual, social and spiritual faculties of the individual. It strongly holds that education should change and cultivate every aspect of one's life, equipping and fitting the individual for serving humankind. In a nutshell, SDA education is about the wholistic training and development of the complete being. Currently the organization runs 9,489 educational institutions; 227 hospitals and sanitariums, and; 673 clinics and dispensaries, world-wide.

NEAU Talks

I find that social-life here is beautiful, perfect and peaceful. I have experienced that students and teachers are very friendly and respectful. Honestly, just being a part of NEAU is stress-relieving!

Chanmiki War

NEAU is the most beautiful and peaceful educational institution that I've been to, so far. The beauty of the campus is super desirable... actually it feels like a little heaven on earth! Despite my study load, I find peace in my heart.

Christma Kamei

Just living together with friends who come from different cultures, tribes and languages is in itself so educative. My worldview has broadened and changed for the better since coming here.

Lalfelkimi

The academic programs at NEAU are student-centric. Teachers are friendly and professional. My age has not stopped me from enrolling here as a student. I am thoroughly enjoying my studies here.

Testimonials

NEAU Talkies

Hostel life is also part of an academy. Though it is not so easy to adjust, yet I learn lessons each day, I would not have learnt, otherwise.

Ponjith Sangma

True sense of existence ebbs out of religious experiences. The religious atmosphere on this campus is shaping and maturing me to be a responsible citizen for this world and for the world to come. I thank God for bringing me here to NEAU!

Elvina Kamei

I enjoy the sports activities in this institution! They help keep my body and mind focused, sharp and sound.

Phaningpam

I am soaking in all that NEAU has to offer, be it the hostel life, classroom, library, play fields, church, etc. Come to NEAU if you want to experience life in its fullness—I can guarantee that you will leave NEAU with memories created and cherished.
